

25th Anniversary
Humanities Doctoral Programme

PERFORMING INTERDISCIPLINARITY

A forum and debate on interdisciplinary practices within the university

Saturday, September 26th : 1p.m.

Visual Arts Building Auditorium VA-114

1395 Blvd. René-Lévesque O.

RECEPTION: Gallery of the Visual Arts Building : 4p.m.

Keynote Speaker:

Sneja GUNEW

*{Feminist Knowledge as Critique and Construct;
Feminism and the Politics of Difference}*

"Cultural Literacy in an Era of Globalization and Multiculturalism"

PANEL: All graduates of the PhD in Humanities Programme

Charles Levin: *Psychoanalyst & Professor of Communications
/ McGill University*

Roberta Hamilton: *Associate Dean, Arts & Science
/ Queens University*

Michael Boyce: Multimedia Artist

Jennifer Fisher: *Art Critic, Contemporary Art Fellow
/ National Gallery of Canada &
Postdoctoral Fellow / Cornell University*

The forum is presented in conjunction with an exhibition,
"Doctorings", featuring work by Humanities Doctoral students.

With Thanks To:

Dean of Arts & Science, Dean of Fine Arts, Dean of Students, Graduate Students Association, School of Graduate Studies, Multiculturalism &
Issues of Equity Project, Études françaises, Sociology & Anthropology,
The Simone de Beauvoir Institute, Dept. of Philosophy, Dept. of Communications, Film Studies Programme.

Design: M-C Therrien